Liz,
Attached are all those who were on the 10am call. Someone at Heartland (or elsewhere) must love Emily Holden, because she was on the call, but wasn't invited. She's the only person on the list who shouldn't have been.
Best,
Kelly

Hi Kelly, Apologies for the change on our end, but Samantha Dravis, our head of policy is going to lead the call from EPA's side. She is copied on here. I will send her call details. Thanks again - Liz

Thanks Liz!

Michael Catanzaro will also be on the call, from our end. In terms of run of show, we'd like Mandy and Justin to walk the surrogates through the action, grounds, and what it all means (the "so-what/major impact" points to be made on TV). The group invited includes energy experts, think tanks, conservative cable TV pundits and columnists.

When you dial-in, you will be greeted by an AT&T operator, who will put all of us in a special queue. We can then hash-out the official run of show before being connected to the larger surrogate group. The AT&T operator will run the Q&A portion of the call after the briefings have been done.

Thank you all for doing this. If you have any questions, please call me at { EOP / Ex. 6 }

Best,
Kelly

Mandy Gunasekara and Justin Schwab (copied here) will be on the call. They have been instrumental in this proposed repeal effort and should be able to answer any questions posed from stakeholders.

Hi Kelly – Are we still planning on a 10 a.m. surrogates call for tomorrow? I have updated talking points and a draft press release (attached). If we are still doing the call, can you please send around a call number?

Thanks – Liz Bowman, EPA 202-309-3416

Yes, I'd like you guys to actually lead the call. Address the recommendations, goal, framework, etc and take questions. The group would be think tank leaders and pundits. Attached are the experts – would love you guys to review and add. I will also include conservative cable pundits.

Liz,

Can we pull together a surrogates call on Tuesday? Say at 10am? Would love to get our friends excited to talk about this /write statements. I can pull together an initial list, if you'd like. Similar to what we did with Paris.

Best,

Kelly

Liz,

I've copied Kelly Sadler who runs our surrogate outreach operation. I'd like to make sure you're connected with her as you prepare your timeline and strategy for next week's CPP announcement/rollout. She has set up numerous surrogate briefings on other Administration initiatives. Also, below are the email addresses for Paul Teller and Andy Koenig in our Office of Legislative Affairs. Please make sure your legislative affairs staff connects with them.

Please let us know what else you need from me. Once you have a timeline for the announcement and release, please let us know.

Thank you!

Brad
